

A luxurious, extensive courtyard home suitable as a manager's residence, suburban home or remote sea front escape.

This layout uses four, three pod pavilions, gathered around a central courtyard to provide an excellent level of accommodation. A central landscaped pool would greatly enhance this living space.

The 150 SqM home includes a large kitchen dining space, two double bedrooms and a bathroom in one pavilion, two double bedrooms or one bedroom and one study and bathroom in the master wing and a large open plan living space closing off the courtyard.
